

Standard Grade Biology
The World of Plants

1. Introducing Plants

Checklist Grade

At the end of this topic you should be able to:

(a) give examples of advantages of there being a wide variety of plants.

☐ General

(b) describe three specialised uses of plants and describe a production or refining process e.g. malting barley, rape seed, raspberries, timber

☐ General

(c) explain the possible consequences to man and other animals of a reduction in the number of species.

☐ Credit

(d) describe 2 potential uses of plants or plant products and explain the difficulties of ensuring full exploitation e.g. new medicines, sources of fuel, oils.

☐ Credit

Homework

End of Topic Test
